~The Journey begins

SEMINAR DETAILS

Hello

Thank you for your interest in the Debt Free For Life seminar.

Please fill out the registration form on Page 2 for the Seminar which is being held Thurs 7pm-8pm 31st May 2018.

Debt Free for Life seminars are to help you learn real skills you can use to create a better life for yourself, your family, and increase your wealth. Whilst I was putting together the information and research over the last four years I found I could apply the strategies I learned, to my own financial situation and use science to create real lasting change to my financial situation. This time I am doing a special 1 hour free seminar on the topic of Bankruptcy and what it is like to be bankrupt.

Information I will be presenting is from my direct research and/or personal experience. It does feature information about our banking and debt collection industries that you probably never knew existed. I believe this information can help you to become better creators of your own wealth. Quite simply - knowledge is power.

I have worked for some years as a bookkeeper so I see first hand how uncontrolled debt and spending can destroy peoples' lives. Mostly its because they don't simply know any other way or understand the forces behind them that are driving their behaviours and actions.

My seminar would not be complete without showing you how you can create strong cashflows for yourselves, your families and your businesses. So we will discuss that as well.

Here are THREE ways to help create cashflow and wealth

➤ Small Business

One of the exciting ways you can create wealth, is through business. This can be simply by being self employed or owning a company.

➤ Join Community Groups

Hold Officer positions and learn skills to build their cashflow and wealth also.

➤ Get published

Write Ebooks on topics that you know and are passionate about.

I'll share with you how literally one word actually saved me hundreds of dollars.

Because the seminars are action orientated, to get started before you come, ask yourself this question – “How could I survive without a credit card or debt.” See if you can come up with 20 different ways.

I have attached a registration form if you would like to attend. Please sign the terms and disclaimer. Post or scan and email the form back to me. Look forward to meeting you.

PS. Don't forget to tick the box on the registration form for your free value session.

Campaign – At 8pm for anyone who wishes to stay for about 15 minutes after, I'll talk about my campaign to have the debt collection industry regulated.
